During a medical crisis the Fort Hood Fisher House is a "home away from home" for military personnel (both active and retired) and their families. The house has a warm, compassionate environment where families and caring friends can nurture one another in times of need.

The Fisher House is on the corner of Santa Fe Drive and Wratten Drive, in the south parking lot of the Darnall Army Medical Center.

Zachary & Elizabeth Fisher of New York gave it as a gift to Fort Hood and Darnall Army Medical Center. It is built on government land and maintained by Darnall.

The purpose of the Fisher House is to give families a clean, safe, low-cost respite from the stress of worrying about loved ones.

Who can stay in the Fisher House?

- Patients' family members, relatives and significant others
- Active duty, retirees, and veterans and their family members
